FAN ENGAGEMENT REPORT

2023/24 SEASON

OUR COMMITMENT TO FANS

Welcome to the Club's Fan Engagement Report for the 2023/24 season.

We are delighted to present our first Fan Engagement Report, which outlines how we engage and consult with our supporters annually and showcases a wide range of the fan engagement activity that has taken place throughout the 2023/24 season, working alongside our fantastic supporters.

The report forms part of the Premier League's Fan Engagement Standard (FES), which we welcomed upon announcement in March 2023 and represents an enhanced approach to fan communication and consultation at the Club.

As a Club, we are fully committed to greater, structured communication with fans, ensuring that your voices are heard and that your views inform Club activities.

The Club has seen significant growth in recent years and we are nothing without the passionate support of our fans. We are proud of the rich diversity that exists amongst our global fanbase. Both the FES and Fan Advisory Board represent a new, much-welcomed era for fan engagement and consultation and to ensure the widest possible representation of our fanbase.

HOW WE ENGAGE FAN ADVISORY BOARD

The Fan Advisory Board (FAB) provides a forum for fan group representatives and elected members from different sections of our fanbase, inclusive and reflective of its diversity.

The Club is represented on the FAB by Executive Director and Nominated Board Level Official for fan engagement, Donna-Maria Cullen, and Head of Supporter Engagement, Jake Heath, with the Chairman, other Board members and senior Club staff attending selected meetings.

Co-Chaired by Chris Paouros, (Proud Lilywhites representative and Supporter Representative Co-chair) and the Nominated Board Level Official, the FAB meets on a quarterly basis with the Supporter Representative Co-Chair attending a maximum of four Club Board meetings each year.

In addition to quarterly FAB meetings, working groups have been created to focus on matters of particular importance to supporters, with Club staff involved where required. Working groups include DEI, matchday atmosphere and the experiences of women and junior supporters.

Minutes of FAB meetings will be published in the dedicated area of the Club's website.

The FAB covers a range of non-playing matters, including:

The Club's strategic vision and objectives

Off-pitch performance updates, priorities and plans

Operational matchday issues

Proposals relating to significant changes to Club heritage assets

Stadium issues and plans

The Club's community strategy

The Club's equality, diversity and inclusion commitments

The Club's plan for broader supporter engagement

FAB CO-CHAIR REPORT – 2023/24

The Club welcomed the introduction of the Premier League Fan Engagement Standard in March 2023, with supporter representatives elected to form the inaugural Fan Advisory Board ahead of the 2023/24 season.

In its first year, the Club and FAB set out to build the foundations for a strong relationship, with the FAB creating a new form of engagement for both the Club and supporters. Throughout the season, discussions have centred upon the subjects that matter most to supporters, in addition to implementing processes that we hope will pave the way of working for future seasons.

We believe the structure of the FAB is well constituted, with an independent and democratic election process and supporters representing the many sections of our fanbase, inclusive and reflective of our diversity.

Meetings are held in a manner that encourages open and honest discussion, with the FAB Co-Chairs promoting a balanced contribution from all supporter representatives, ensuring everyone has an equal voice to provide fan feedback.

There has been regular engagement between the Club and FAB, with seven formal meetings during the 2023/24 season, all supplemented by day-to-day dialogue and informal meetings to progress discussions.

A Fan Forum also saw supporters from the wider fan base invited to a Q&A with the Chairman, men's and women's first team managers and captains. The FAB remit covers strategic matters, with the Club providing insight into the processes and policies that help inform strategy.

The FAB is well integrated across the Club, with an induction taking place at the start of the season and continued engagement between supporter representatives and a variety of Club staff. Furthermore, the FAB Co-Chair, Chris Paouros, has attended three meetings of the Club's Board of Directors.

LOOKING TO THE 2024/25 SEASON

Together, the Club and FAB identified a process for collaboration between the FAB and the Tottenham Hotspur Supporters' Trust, aligning this with the remit set out in the agreements between the Club and respective supporter organisations.

Both the Club and FAB agreed to review the consultation process, with both parties sharing their feedback on how they feel this could be improved. FAB members felt there was room for improvement in terms of early consultation, the provision of information, and the opportunity to consider and respond, as well as ensuring their input was reflected in the final outcomes. The Club said that FAB input had been considered and the Club always endeavoured to reflect this as much as possible in the final outcomes. There were, sometimes, differences between both parties which means we haven't always reached a full agreement and the Club looks forward to discussing the issues with the FAB as we progress together. The Club engaged with supporter representatives, making changes to proposals and creating new policies, as a direct result of FAB feedback.

As we move into the second year, our collective priority is to agree the consultation process, providing expectations for both parties on timescales for any consultation and the required level of information to be shared when considering any proposals. Our aim is to provide the most effective and meaningful consultation process for all parties and to ensure that the supporters voice is embedded throughout, with any items of consultation integrated within the FAB meetings calendar. Both parties agreed that the profile, remit and work of the FAB should be further communicated, utilising the information hosted on the Fan Engagement section of the Club website and other channels.

Working groups have been established for the 2024/25 season, focusing on diversity, equity and inclusion, the experience for women and junior supporters, and matchday atmosphere. Supporters' groups will also have the chance to come together to support the local community in Haringey, in partnership with the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation.

The Club and FAB recognise that the first year has been an opportunity for learning and development and both parties agree there are positives to build upon, as well as some areas of priority for the second season.

We are committed to providing the best supporter experience and have identified the following objectives for the 2024/25 season:

1. Continue to build strong relationships, with trust and transparency on both sides
2. Further strengthen the consultation process between Club, FAB and THST
3. Further develop administrative processes and timescales around meetings
4. Amplify the work of the FAB via appropriate communication channels
5. Use the findings from the Club's supporter surveys to help inform FAB discussions

Daniel, Ange, Robert, Sonny and Bethany answer supporters' questions at Fan Forum

Our Fan Forum proved a big hit with supporters as Chairman, Daniel Levy, our Men's and Women's Head Coaches, Ange Postecoglou and Robert Vilahamn, and Men's and Women's First Team captains, Heung-Min Son and Bethany England took to the stage at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium.

CHAMPIONING DEI WITH OUR FANS

10-years of Proud Lilywhites

This season saw the Club celebrate 10 years of the Proud Lilywhites – our LGBTQI+ supporters' association.

Proud Lilywhites' membership stands at nearly 1,000 fans across the world, following a decade of campaigning and activity alongside the Club, including:

- The Proud Lilywhites flag on display in stadium on all home matchdays – sending a clear and important message that Tottenham Hotspur is for everyone
- Events including Pride marches, photo opportunities and Q&As with players and Ambassadors, matchday activities and lighting up the stadium in rainbow colours
- Training for matchday stewards, Club staff, players and local community groups on how to identify and combat homophobia
- The launch of a retail range with the Spurs Shop, including t-shirts, flags and accessories
- Recognition in the form of two Football v Homophobia awards in both 2020 and 2023

A special celebration event was held at the stadium, with over 100 Proud Lilywhites members and allies in attendance. Players from both the Men's and Women's first teams met with guests at the start of the event, before an exclusive screening of a new 10-year anniversary film, telling the story of the past decade through the eyes of Proud Lilywhites members.

A panel discussion was then held, hosted by broadcaster and Spurs fan, Leon Mann, featuring Ledley King, Proud Lilywhites' patron and Olympic hockey gold medallist, Helen Richardson-Walsh, Kick It Out's Troy Townsend and Women In Football Director, Jo Tongue.

"Proud Lilywhites is rightly seen as the shining light of LGBTQI+ supporters' associations across football. The Club will remain steadfast in its support of Proud Lilywhites and its objectives."

Donna-Maria Cullen, Executive Director

"Being part of something is important and football provides that - that's what Proud Lilywhites has done for me and for hundreds, maybe even thousands, of others across the world. This isn't about tolerance and acceptance - it's active celebration, purposeful promotion and real inclusion and belonging."

Chris Paouros, Proud Lilywhites Co-Chair

CREATING NEW SUPPORTERS' GROUPS

“We want to create a meaningful platform for women’s voices at Spurs and across football. The number of women supporting the men’s game is rapidly growing. Women of the Lane will be a strong collective in making sure football is an inclusive space that represents women fans. We want to connect more women and girls to the joy of football, ensure all fans have equal access to the game and work with all fans and the wider footballing community to ensure sexism and misogyny have no place in football. We’re proud of our growing women fan base at Spurs and the commitment from the Club to driving positive change in the game.”

Introducing Women of the Lane

On International Women’s Day, the Club was proud to launch our first ever official supporters’ association for women.

Women of the Lane aims to bring women fans of the men’s team together around a shared love of the Club and to enhance the matchday experience. The group will provide a touchpoint for women and non-binary Spurs fans to meet up on matchdays, watch games together and connect online.

The group plans to build connections with other women fan groups around the country, supporting clubs in playing a leadership role to encourage more conversations about sexual violence and better reporting of sexism and misogyny.

Women of the Lane, Committee

“We are extremely proud to see an ever-growing number of women and girls in attendance at our men’s matches. Women of the Lane has our full backing in spreading the positive message that football is for everyone, providing a fantastic way for our women fans to come together through a shared love for the Club.”

FANS FOR DIVERSITY AWARD

Work of Spurs REACH recognised nationally with FSA Award

In December 2023, Spurs REACH celebrated winning the Fans for Diversity Award at the Football Supporters' Association (FSA) Awards.

It is recognition on the national stage for the hard work and impact of the supporters' group, winning the award within 18 months of their formation.

Spurs REACH - which stands for Race, Ethnicity and Cultural Heritage - promotes and encourages the sharing of information and good practice around the inclusion of diverse and under-represented ethnic communities within football, working closely with the Club and other supporters' groups.

For co-chairman Sash Patel, a lifelong Spurs fan and Season Ticket Holder, the award wasn't just a 'wow' moment, but also an important step so early in Spurs REACH's journey.

"It's a national award and that's massive for us. We've only been going for 18 months, so it's fantastic recognition for the work that's been done by Spurs REACH, the work we do with the club and with the fanbase.

"It was a privilege to be there and to be able to explain what Spurs REACH and the club are doing together and how fans are at the heart of it.

"For us, it's the start of a long journey, a necessary journey, and it's now about what we do next. We're celebrating each other's differences, celebrating each other's uniqueness and what's important to each other. We're trying to help people understand more about each other and doing it in this environment we all love."
